

Sinclair has the right to make any statement they care to. But it is an abuse of our public airwaves to make a politically biased statement without rebuttal, especially just prior to an election. Before the FCC allows this abuse, they must be reminded that their funds come from Congress and can be taken away.